

CS208H

The CS208H is a compact microprocessor-controlled 8-zones input expander for the CSX75 control panels allowing hardware expansions (It cannot be used in combination with CS175 and CS275). It is supplied inside a small polycarbonate housing and has an optional tamper switch and power isolator making it ideal for use in a remote location.

Ordering Information

CS208H	Input Expander 8 zone housed
CS208	Input Expander 8 Zones
CS216	Input Expander 16 Zones

- 8 zones expander module
- Additional optional tamper switch capability
- Power isolation
- Supplied in small polycarbonate housing